

BETHESDA CHILD OF THE MONTH

November 2011

Amo- (sh-moh)

Amogelang, or Amo as he is better known, was last featured in our 2008 COM and is growing up fast. Amo is in Grade 2 and is normally a quiet boy who enjoys helping other people. He regularly helps his siblings with their homework and is an excellent reader. While he is not so keen on doing household chores, his mom says that he especially enjoys eating meals and always makes a point to tell her, "thank you" and how much he enjoyed the food. He loves to play with his younger brothers and sisters and often runs to his parents to tell them about the funny and good things that they are doing. He really likes to make the others laugh.

Amo's strengths are that he is willing to help with almost anything (even the chores!) and does so with a good attitude. He also responds well to correction at home. One of the areas that he struggles with is being disobedient or slow to follow instructions while he is at school. His parents ask that you pray that Amo will soon understand his sin and the need for a Savior. They would also like to see him learn to respond quickly in obedience while he is at school. Thank you for praying!

Amo with his brother, Jack wearing the "helmet of salvation" and the "breastplate of righteousness" during a school holiday teaching time.

\ Pray for Amo **

- That he will understand his need of salvation at an early age
  - That he will be quick to obey when he is at school